And whereas by the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year of His said Majesty, it is enacted, except other Things enacted, That it shall not be lawful to renew any Grant or Lease of any Tenements or Hereditaments authorized by the said Act to be granted for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years, and within Twenty Years of the Period of the Expiration of the same, except in certain Cases therein specified: And whereas it is expedient that a Power of Renewal should be allowed in other Cases not specified in the said Exception: be it therefore enacted, That where any House or other Building shall require or shall be intended and agreed to be rebuilt, or any new House or other Building to be erected upon any Land or Ground belonging to the Crown, within the ordering and Survey aforesaid, held under a Lease from the Crown, upon which other Houses or Buildings included in the same Lease are standing, if the Lessee or Grantee shall consent and agree to build a new House or Building, or to rebuild a House or Building of such Value as to increase the Value of the whole Property included in such Lease, it shall be lawful at any Time or Times hereafter to grant any further or other Lease of such Land or Ground, with the Houses and Buildings thereupon, as were included in the former Lease, for any Term or Terms (except for Life or Lives) not exceeding the Terms and Estates authorized by the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year aforesaid, to be granted: provided that in every such Lease there be reserved and made payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, such Rent as is by the said last mentioned Act or this Act required to be reserved, and that Covenants or Conditions be inserted therein on the Part of the respective Grantees or Lessees for erecting such new Houses or Buildings, or rebuilding such Houses or Buildings, within a reasonable Time, to be in such Case licensed and approved for that Purpose, and that such respective Improvements shall be of the requisite Value.

XX. And be it further enacted, That where any new Edifice or Building shall be erected or agreed to be erected on Ground belonging to the Crown, within the ordering and Survey of the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster, or of the said Surveyor General aforesaid, or held under any Lease from the Crown, for the Enlargement, or to be erected to and occupied with any House or other Building held under any other Lease from the Crown, it shall be lawful to grant a new Lease or Leases for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years, as well of the Ground on which such new Edifice or Building shall be erected or agreed to be erected, as of all or any Part of any other Tenements or Hereditaments contained in such Lease; provided, that the greater Part of the yearly Value of the Tenements and Hereditaments to be granted shall consist of the Buildings thereon, or of Ground fit and appropriated for building, or for necessary Gardens, Yards, Courtyards, or other Appurtenances as aforesaid.

XXI. And whereas the Restrictions contained in the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year of His said Majesty, as to new Grants, may be found inconvenient in respect to the granting of Leases of some Parts of Property now held under Lease from the Crown, and which are of a profitable and uncertain Value: be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to grant and renew Leases of the Profits of Agreements of Tolls disafforded, the Profits of Piers and Toll Piers arising within the Principality of Wales and County Palatine of Chester, the Profits of Light-houses on Boscawen, and of Clifton for mooring Ships, Tolls, Markets and Fairs, Tithes, Fishweirs, Ferries, and other Articles of uncertain Profits, for such Term of Years not exceeding Thirty-nine Years, and for such Fine or Fines, and under such Rent or other Reservations and Conditions as they shall from Time to Time think reasonable and expedient.

XXII. And whereas in the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year of His said Majesty it was enacted and declared, That where any Waste, Commons, or other uninclosed Lands or Grounds within the ordering and Survey aforesaid, in which His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, have or shall have any Interest, shall be deemed fit and proper to be divided, inclosed, drained, or otherwise improved, and shall be by the Authority of Parliament or otherwise authorized and directed to be divided and inclosed, and where the Term or Estate in Possession of and in the same respectively shall be deemed by the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury to be indifferent to derive the Costs and Charges of such Works and Improvements, with reasonable Profit and Advantage to the Parties making or causing the same to be made, so in their Representations or Affidavits, in all and every such Case and Cases it shall be lawful to renew any such Lease, or to grant any further or other Lease of any such Lands or Grounds, or any Part thereof, for any Term or Estate not exceeding the Terms or Estates authorized to be granted of Leases, Tenements, or Hereditaments of such or the like Descriptions, by the Act of the First Year of Queen Anne therein mentioned, or by the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year of His said Majesty aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient that such Power of Renewal should be extended to any other Leases comprised in the same Lease with such Wastes or other uninclosed Lands: be it therefore further enacted, That whenever any Lease shall be renewed under the said recited Provision, with respect to any such Waste, Commons, or other uninclosed Lands or Grounds, it shall be lawful to renew the same in like Manner and upon the same Terms with respect to any other Leases or Grounds comprised in the same Lease, with such Wastes, Commons, or uninclosed Lands or Grounds.

XXIII. And whereas by the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year aforesaid, certain Rules are laid down for the Reservation of Rent, in Cases where there are substantial Buildings upon Ground to be demised, no the Buildings thereon shall not require or be intended or agreed to be rebuilt, and also in Cases where

 * those are on substantial Buildings upon the Grounds to be demised, or the Buildings thereupon require, or * shall be intended and agreed to be rebuilt, or other new Buildings erected upon such Land or Ground; but
 * no Rule is laid down for Cases where upon the Ground to be demised there is some substantial Building, not * required or intended or agreed to be rebuilt, and either some other Building required or intended or agreed to * be rebuilt, or some new Building is proposed to be erected thereon; but it is therein enacted, That in all * Cases where upon the Ground to be demised there is some substantial Building, not required or intended or
 * agreed to be rebuilt, and either some other Building thereon requiring or intended or agreed to be rebuilt, or
 * some new Building is intended or agreed to be erected thereon, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer
 * or Commissioners of the Treasury to do what Rent shall be advised and paid annually, and whether any
 * and what Fine shall be taken upon such Demise, regard being had to the Value of the Buildings on the Ground * to be demised not intended to be rebuilt, and the Proportion it bears to the Value of the whole Property
 * intended to be demised.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, when they shall be of Opinion that the Solidity and Value of any old House or
 * House to be demised not required or intended to be rebuilt, is such as to be insufficient security for the due
 * Payment of the whole Annual Rent demanded by them to be a reasonable Consideration for such Building or
 * Buildings and Ground held therewith respectively, for the Term and Limits to be granted by and as in the Cases
 * to droff that the Whole of such Consideration shall be received and taken in Rent only, without taking any
 * Fine for the same.

XXV. And whereas it is necessary to vest a discretionary Power in the Lord High Treasurer or * Commissioners of the Treasury, to determine the Rent upon Leases of Lands, Townships, and Town-wards
 * belonging to the Crown, within the ordering and Survey aforesaid, in certain Cases, not provided for by Law, * be it therefore enacted, That for and in respect of any Lease or Grant under the Great Seal, or the Seal of the * Exchequer, of any House or other Buildings which shall be certified by Surveyors not to require rebuilding, * and which shall be of greater yearly Value than the Ground as they are leas, but which a Lessor may
 * desire to pull down in order to erect other Houses or Buildings of greater Value for his own Accommodation * or Advantage, or Houses or other Buildings which may have been damaged or destroyed by Fire, or Ground * on which such Buildings have been erected, and also of Houses or other Buildings which shall be only in part
 * rebuilt, or to which new Buildings shall be added, and also of Ground to be granted as Gardens, Yards, or * Outings to Houses already erected or to be erected, whether on Ground belonging to His Majesty, or to * any other Proprietor, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His * Majesty's Treasury at their Discretion, to admit of the Consideration being paid, either in Rent only or in
 * Rent and Fine; provided always, that where a Fine shall be taken it shall not exceed the Proportion of One * Third Part of the net annual Value of the Premises, in respect of which the same shall be paid, nor be computed
 * at a higher Rate than the highest legal interest.

XXVI. And whereas the most usual Mode of Reservation in Leases of Mines, Collieries, Quarries, and * other Mineral and Fossil Substances, and that which is best adapted to this Kind of Property, is a certain
 * * Share of the Ore or other Produce in Kind, or a Rent or Duty in Money payable on the Quantity yielded;
 * be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful in Leases under the Great Seal, or the Seal of the Exchequer, * of Mines, Collieries, Quarries, and other Mineral and Fossil Substances belonging to His Majesty, within the
 * ordering and Survey aforesaid, instead of any other annual Rent, to reserve such Share of the Produce in Kind, * or such Rent or Duty upon the Quantity or Value of such Produce, as the Lords Commissioners of the
 * Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall think proper.

XXVII. And whereas His Majesty, in Right of His Crown, is Owner of the Soil of the Great Ferry of * Broadland in the County of Bedford, and of the Mines, Minerals, and other Substances within and under * * the same, and is also entitled to the Heritage thereof, subject to the Discharge of Cattle of Occupiers of * certain Lands within and adjacent to the said Ferry, at annual, fixed, and customary Payments: And
 * whereas by reason of such Discharge of Cattle, and the Nature and Extent of the said Ferry, and of the * * Soil, the Rights and Interests of His Majesty therein cannot be made productive in their present State, and it * * is therefore expedient that Power should be given to dispose of the same; be it therefore enacted, That it * shall be lawful for the said Surveyor General for the Time being, to contract and Agree with any Person or * Persons, or any Bodies Politick or Corporate, for the Sale of the Soil, Mines, or other Minerals, or other * Substances or Herbage, or any other Rights or Interests of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the * said Ferry or any Part thereof, or in any Manner appertaining thereto or relating thereto the same, within the
 * ordering and Survey aforesaid, at or for the best Price or Consideration in Money which the said Surveyor
 * General shall be able to procure for the same, and which shall be approved of by the Lord High Treasurer or
 * Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being; and the Purchase Money to be paid for the same shall from
 * Time to Time be paid into the Bank of England in the true Account, and shall be included in the Purchase * of Stock of the same Denominations, and the Stock so purchased, and the Issue it and yearly Dividend arising
 * therefrom, shall be applied in the same Manner, and subject to the same Regulations as are herein-before
 * * prescribed with respect to the Purchase Money arising from the Sale of Crown Lands herein-before authorized;
 * and such Sales of any such Rights and Interests in the said Ferry shall be made in the same Manner and under * the same Regulations, and the Conditions and Exceptions to be given shall be in the same Form as aforesaid, as
 * are herein-before directed with respect to the Sale of Crown Lands; and from and immediately after the * * Execution of the said Certificate and Receipt in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue; and there-

XXVIII. And he is further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the said Chancellor and Council of the said Duchy, or to the said Surveyor General, that it would be for the Advantage of the Land Revenue of the Crown to exchange any Parcel or Parcels of Land belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for any other Parcel or Parcels of Land of equal or nearly equal Value, belonging to any other Person or Persons, whether Publick or Corporate, and such other Person or Persons or Bodies shall consent to such Exchange, it shall be lawful for the Surveyor General of the said Duchy and the said Surveyor General to make the Value as well of the said Parcel or Parcels of Land belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, as of the said Parcel or Parcels of Land proposed to be exchanged for such Land of His Majesty, to be ascertained by some able and practical Surveyor of Land, who shall answer to his Survey, Estimate, or Valuation thereof, when completed, an Oath (as being of the People called Quakers, an Affirmation) taken and subscribed by him before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of the United Kingdom, who is respectively hereby authorized to administer as Oath or Affirmation in that Behalf, the Tenth whereof shall be as follows; that it is to say,

“ I, of. B. do swear [or, being a Quaker, do solemnly affirm] That the Survey or Account hereto annexed, and which was faithfully and impartially made by me; that the Value of the Property of the Crown, and of C. D. is therein contained, is justly estimated therein, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment; and that all the Particulars Rated as the said Survey or Account are true to the best of my Knowledge and Belief.”

Which Oath and Affirmation is taken and subscribed, shall be filed with the Survey and Estimate in the Office of the said Surveyor General, or of the Clerk of the Council of the said Duchy, and the said Surveyor General shall report in the Land High Treasury or the Comptrolloers of the Treasury, or the said Surveyor General of the said Duchy shall report to the Chancellor and Council of the said Duchy the Grounds of his Recommendation of the proposed Exchange, together with the said Valuation of the respective Parcels of Land; and if the Lord High Treasurer or the Comptrolloers of the Treasury, or the Chancellor and Council of the said Duchy, shall, upon due Consideration had, approve of such Exchange taking place, they shall authorize the said Surveyor General, or the proper Officers of the said Duchy, to carry the same into effect, upon such Terms and Conditions as they shall think fit, provided the same shall be consented to by the Person or Persons, or Body with whom such Exchange is proposed to be made; and the said Chancellor and Council, and the said Surveyor General shall thereupon cause the said Parcel or Parcels of Land belonging to His Majesty, to be conveyed to the said Person or Persons, or Body respectively with whom the said Exchange is proposed to be made, and such Person or Persons, or Body, shall at the same Time convey to the said Chancellor or Council, or to the said Surveyor General, as Trust for and on the Behalf of His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Right of His Crown, or in Right of His Duchy, the said Parcel or Parcels of Land so agreed to be given in Exchange for such Parcel or Parcels of Crown Land as aforesaid; and from and immediately after the Completion of such Exchange, the said Parcels of Land so belonging to His Majesty, and given in Exchange as aforesaid, shall vest in the Person or Person, or Body, to whom the same is conveyed, for the same Estate or Interest, and as fully and effectually as the said Parcels of Land so given in Exchange did before such Exchange; and the said Parcels of Land so conveyed in Exchange to His Majesty, shall vest in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, as Right of His Crown, or in Right of His Duchy, as fully and effectually, and be subject to the same Application as the said Parcels of Land so conveyed in Exchange to such Person or Person, or Body, was or was to be before such Exchange.

XXIX. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Chancellor of the said Duchy, if they shall think fit, to direct the Payment or Acceptance on Behalf of His Majesty of such Sum of Money, for equalizing any such Exchange, as shall be agreed upon between the said Chancellor and Council, or the said Surveyor General and the said Person or Persons or Bodies with whom such Exchange is proposed to be made, and when any such Money is to be paid to any such Person or Person or Body for such Purpose, such Money shall be paid out of the Land Revenue of the Crown, or out of the Revenues of the said Duchy; and where any Money shall be paid to His Majesty for equalizing such Exchange, the same, if it shall amount to the Sum of Fifty Pounds, shall be voted in the Three Passes per Crown Consolidated Bank Annuities in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer, and the Dividends thereof shall be applicable as Land Revenue; and if it shall not amount to the Sum of Fifty Pounds, the same shall be appropriated as Land Revenue under the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury; or in case of the Money being paid to His Majesty in Right of His said Duchy, the same shall be placed in Three per Crown Consolidated Bank Annuities in the Name of the Duchy of Lancaster, according to the Direction of the said Lord High Treasurer.

C A P. LXXXVII

An Act for repealing the Rates and Taxes taken by Hackney Coachmen, and for establishing others in lieu thereof; and for amending several Laws relating to Hackney Coaches.

[23d June 1808.]

WHEREAS the Rates and Taxes to be taken by Hackney Coachmen, and Persons legally sitting under them, for the Hire of Hackney Coaches, have, in consequence of the greatly advanced Prices of Provisions and every other Article necessary to Carriage and Horses, been found in former Instances to be insufficient, and otherwise unprofitable to the Carriage of the Difficulty of calculating the same: And whereas it is therefore expedient that the Rates and Taxes mentioned and set forth in all former Acts of Parliament should be repealed, and other substituted in lieu thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, all the Rates and Taxes mentioned and set forth in former Acts of Parliament, and heretofore taken for the Hire of Hackney Coaches within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof, and within all and every the Parishes and Places comprised within the weekly Bills of Mortality, or other Places, within which such Hackney Coaches are compellable to go or be driven, shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof, every Person who now or shall hereafter be licensed by the Commissioners for licensing and registering Hackney Coaches for the Time being, or the major Part of them, to drive, keep, and let to Hire by the Hour or Day, or otherwise any Hackney Coach with Horses, Grooms, and Males, within the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Suburbs of the same, or within the Parished and Places comprised within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or any other Place or Places within which, by any of the Laws now in force, such Hackney Coaches are compellable to go, or any Person sitting legally under any such licensed Person, shall be entitled to, and may demand, receive and take, for the Hire of any Hackney Coach, the Rates and Taxes described, mentioned, and set forth in Tickers in either of the Two Schedules or Tables hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.) calculating for Time, or Distance, at the Option of such Coachman.

All former Rates repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Rates and Fares of Hackney Coaches shall be calculated by the Hour or Mile only, and not otherwise.

Taxes how to be calculated.

23 G. 3. c. 87.

III. And whereas by an Act, passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled, An Act to regulate and amend in such of the Acts, made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as relate to Hackney Coaches and Chaises: And whereas by one other Act, made and passed in the Thirty-sixth and Thirtieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for repealing the Rates and Fares taken by licensed Hackney Coachmen, and for establishing other Rates and Taxes in lieu thereof, and for explaining and amending several Laws relating to Hackney Coaches and Chaises, Hackney Coachmen are obliged and compellable after Sunset to go certain Distances, thence respectively set forth, beyond the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof: And whereas the Period of Sunset has been found to be so easily liable to Dispute, it is therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, every Hackney Coachman plying for Hire within the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, shall be obliged and compellable on every Day of the Week, after the Hour of Eight in the Evening between the Periods of Lady Day and Michaelmas Day, and after the Hour of Five in the Evening between Michaelmas Day and Lady Day, to go the several Distances, and under the several Circumstances mentioned and contained in the said recited Acts respectively.

23 & 40 G. 3. c. 97.

Hackney Coachmen to go the Distances specified in and after this Act on the Periods herein mentioned.

IV. And be it further enacted, That for every Hackney Coach hired in any Part of the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, the Borough of Southwark or any Place adjoining thereto, where there is a regular Continuation of Carriage-way Pavement from either of the said Cities or Borough, or at any Standing for Hackney Coaches beyond any such regular Continuation of Carriage-way Pavement, after the Hour of Eight in the Evening between the Periods of Lady Day and Michaelmas Day, and after the Hour of Five in the Evening between the Periods of Michaelmas Day and Lady Day, and taken to and at all Places at any Place where there is not a regular Continuation of Carriage-way Pavement, there shall be and be lawfully demanded, and payable and paid, over and above the ordinary established Fare payable according to the several Schedules, for the Hire of every such Coach the said Rate or Rates allowed by this Act, or the nearest Extremity of continued Carriage-way Pavement; or, when such Hackney Coach shall have been hired or taken at any Standing for Hackney Coaches beyond any such regular Continuation of Carriage-way Pavement, there shall be demanded and paid, over and above the ordinary established Fare mentioned, the said Rate or Rates both either to such Standing or to the nearest Extremity of continued Carriage-way Pavement, at the Option of the Person discharging such Coach: And for every Hackney Coach which shall be hired or taken to be driven into the Country in the Day-time, and down thither and there delivered, there shall be demanded from the Person or Persons for hiring and discharging such Coach, for the Return thereof on the nearest Extremity of continued Carriage-way Pavement, if such Coach shall have been taken in any Part of the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, the Borough of Southwark or any Place adjoining thereto, where there is a regular Continuation of Carriage-way Pavement from either of the said Cities or Borough: or, if taken at any Place beyond any such regular Continuation of Carriage-way Pavement, then for the Return thereof on such latter Place where taken, over and above the ordinary established Fare payable according to the several Schedules, for the Hire of every such Coach, the additional Rates and Fares following; that is to say, for Ten Miles Five Shillings, for Eight Miles Four Shillings, for Six Miles Three Shillings, and for Four Miles Two Shillings; but no Allowance for Return to be made for any lesser Distance than Four Miles, is calculated.

Every such Fare beyond usual way Pavement.

Part of the Act, by which the said Rates are to be calculated.

Pecuniary to His Majesty when playing for the above money. s. 100 to 100	V. And whereas Hackney Coachmen do discharged in the Country have, contrary to Right, and to the Provisions of the Statute aforesaid Stages, been in the frequent Habit of playing for and picking up promiscuous Passengers, thereby converting their Hackney Coaches into Stages; be it therefore enacted, That every Hackney Coachman do offend, and be liable thereof convicted by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before the major Part of the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence a Penalty not exceeding Three Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings, in the Discretion of the major Part of the said Commissioners: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall prevent or hinder any such Hackney Coachman, so returning from the Country, from taking up regular Fare in the proper Courts of his Employment.
Hackney Coaches shall carry a Table and a Driver on outside.	VI. And whereas Disputes have frequently arisen, and do frequently arise where Hackney Coachmen refuse to carry more than Four Passengers; for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That every Hackney Coachman shall be obliged and compellable to carry Four adult Persons aside his Coach, and a Servant outside, if required, at one and the same Time, and he shall not be compellable to carry above that Number; but if he shall agree to take above that Number, he shall be entitled to demand and receive for every such additional adult Person whom he shall be agreed to carry, and shall carry, One Shilling over and above the regular Fare; or if he shall have been hired to drive into the Country, and shall drive thither, and there shall wait, and shall return with any such additional adult Person, he shall be entitled to demand and receive for every such additional adult Person whom he shall be agreed to carry, and shall carry into the Country, and after waiting, return with, One Shilling for going and One Shilling for returning, over and above his regular Fare.
Fares for adult and Children.	VII. And whereas it hath frequently occurred, that Persons having and taking Hackney Coaches to ^{any} ^{part} ^{of} ^{the} ^{great} ^{streets} ^{of} ^{London}, or other Places of publick Resort, and elsewhere, have directed the Drivers thereof to wait, and have not returned, to the great Loss and Prejudice of the Owners of such Coaches; for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for every Hackney Coachman to hire and take, and directed to wait, and they are hereby empowered to wait, demand, and receive of and from the Person or Persons so being and directing them to wait as aforesaid, a reasonable Sum in Hand, over and above the Fare to which they respectively shall be entitled for driving thither, the Sum is hereby to be accounted for when every such Coach shall be finally discharged.
Allowance of Tax on Coachbook kept on every Coach.	VIII. And whereas by the Laws now in force, Hackney Coachmen are not obliged or compellable to go with Passengers of hiring their Coaches, provided they shall have been out Twelve Hours: And whereas Hackney Coachmen have been oftentimes (especially) summoned to answer for Refusal, to the great Prejudice and Loss both of themselves and their Masters; be it therefore further enacted, That every Hackney Coachman who shall, on a civil and lawful Term, decline to take any Person or Persons desirous to engage his Coach, either that he hath been at work Twelve Hours with his Coach and Horses, or that he is actually hired, and shall afterwards, notwithstanding such Refusal, be summoned to answer for Refusal, and shall, upon the issuing of the Complaint, produce sufficient Evidence to prove that he had been then Twelve Hours at Work, or that he was at the Time actually and lawfully hired (as the Case may be), and it shall not appear that such Hackney Coachman had used any unbecomingly, or had improperly conducted himself towards the Party by whom he shall be so summoned, such Hackney Coachman shall not be punished for such Refusal; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches, before whom such Complaint shall be heard, and they are hereby empowered, to require the Person who shall have summoned such Coachman to make to him a Compensation for his Loss of Time in attending the Office, not exceeding the Sum of Five Shillings, nor less than Three Shillings, to be levied and recovered as any Penalty may be levied and recovered under any Act of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches.
Condemnation in the Hackney Coaches to properly licensed for any taking Passengers.	IX. And whereas the Owners of Hackney Coaches, regularly licensed, have been heretofore greatly prejudiced & aggrieved by the Intolerance of the Owners or Drivers of the Rated figured Stages with the regular Streetwork of Hackney Coaches; for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That an Owner or Driver of any Rated figured Stage, on his Way to London, shall take up any Person as and for a Passenger in his Coach after he shall have entered the paved Streets of London or Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, at any of the Exit gates thereof respectively; nor shall any such Owner or Driver of any such Rated figured Stage, on his Return into the County, take up any Person as and for a Passenger in his Coach, for the Purpose of taking down such Passengers in any of the paved Streets of London or Westminster, or Borough of Southwark, such Owner or Driver will taking in the Time when he shall take up such Passengers that it is his Intention to get out of such Stage in any of the paved Streets of London or Westminster, or Borough of Southwark, under a Penalty in every such Offence of any Sum not exceeding Three Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings, in the Discretion of the Commissioners for licensing Hackney Coaches, or the major Part of them, before whom any Complaint in this behalf shall be heard; or if any Person, being an Owner of such Rated figured Stage, shall offend a Second Time in this behalf, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, before whom such Complaint shall be heard, and they are hereby empowered to revoke the Licence of such Owner so offending more than once, yet notwithstanding, so that no such Owner or Driver shall be liable to any Penalty for any such Offence, if any Person whom he shall have so taken up and let down in any of the paved Streets of London or Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, shall have previously taken his Place for the Country at One of the regular Booking Houses, and paid the full Fare accordingly.

C A P. CXXX.

AN Act for preventing the various Frauds and Depredations committed on Merchants, Ship-Owners, and Underwriters, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports; and also for remedying certain Defects relative to the Adjustment of Salvage, under a Statute made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne. [20th July 1708.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that a Stop should be put to the fraudulent Practices of Boatmen, Pilots, Harbourmen, and others, resident within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, who have for many Years past, upon several Occasions, conspired various Depredations on Ships in Harbours or elsewhere, and taken to themselves and converted to their own Use Anchors, Cables, and other Property which may have been lost by Accident, and made the Masters and Owners of such Ships pay exorbitant Demands for Assistance, to the great Injury of the Merchants and others concerned in Shipping, and unto the Detriment of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, whose Rights have been unjustly invaded: And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, Power is given to certain Commissioners, to be appointed by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, to determine, within the Space of Twelve Hours, all Differences relating to Salvage between the Master of any Vessel and the Person or Persons who shall bring any Anchor or Cable ashore from which any Ship or Vessel shall have been previously forced by Storm of Weather: And whereas by several other Acts, passed in the Tenth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, and in the Eighth and Twenty-third Years of His late Majesty's Reign, the said Act is further continued; and by other Acts of His present Majesty the same was continued up to the Twenty-sixth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and by an Act, passed on the English Day of August One thousand eight hundred and seven, the said several aforesaid Acts were revived and continued for Seven Years longer: And whereas it is found expedient that the Commissioners of Salvage appointed by the Lord Warden should have further Powers granted them, for the Purpose of deciding in all other Cases of Services rendered to Shipping not provided for by the said former Acts: May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and eight, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, to nominate and appoint, by any Instrument or Instruments under His Hand and Seal, Three or more fit and able Persons in each of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns and their Members, to adjust and determine any Difference relative to Salvage (which may arise) between the Master of any Vessel and the Person or Persons bringing such Cables and Anchors ashore; and in case any Ship or Vessel shall be either forced or cut from her Cables and Anchors by Intercourse of Weather, or by any other Accident whatsoever, and leave the same in any Roadstead or other Place within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Members, and the Salvage cannot be adjusted between the Person concerned, then the same shall be determined by any Three or more of the said Persons to be appointed as aforesaid, within the Space of Twenty-four Hours after such Difference shall be referred to them for their Determination thereof; any Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Commissioners shall immediately after their Nomination proceed to elect some fit and proper Person who shall be a Notary or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, as their Secretary or Register, except to the Port of Dover, where the Register for the Time being of the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports shall be the Register, and which Secretary or Register shall enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, all the Proceedings of such Commissioners, and also a Copy of the Awards which they shall from Time to Time make; but such Elections of Secretaries or Registers shall be subject to the Approbation of the Lord Warden for the Time being.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, to be appointed as aforesaid, to decide on all Claims and Demands whatsoever, which shall or may, after the Fifth Day of August next, be made by Pilots, Boatmen, and other Persons for Services of any Sort or Description rendered to any Ship or Vessel, as well for carrying off from the Shore to such Ship or Vessel any Anchor, Cable, or other Stores from any Part or Port of the Coast of Kent, Sussex, Essex, or the Isle of Thanet, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, as for the coasting and conveying such Ships and Vessels from the Downs, and other Bays and Roadsteads on the Coast of Kent, Sussex, Essex, and the Island of Thanet, or from the Sea, or any other Place to Ramsgate, Dover, or any other Harbour, Port, or Place on the said Coasts, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, or for the saving and preserving within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, any Goods or Merchandise wrecked, stranded, or cast away from any Ship or Vessel, the Master or Owners thereof or their Agents being present at the Place where the Commissioners shall be sitting, and that the said Commis-figures shall have full Power and Authority to hear and determine on all Claims whatever of Services rendered by Pilots, Boatmen, and others, to Shipping within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, whether such Ships or Vessels shall be in Distress or not; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners whenever they see Occasion, to examine the Parties or their Witnesses upon their Oaths, which Oaths shall and may be administered by the said Secretary or Register.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to be so appointed, and their Secretary or Register as aforesaid, who shall decide on any such Claims or Demands as aforesaid, to demand and receive of and from the Owners of such Ships or Vessels, or the Proprietors of any such Goods or Merchandises against whom any Pilot, Boatman, or other Person shall make any Claim or Demand for Services of any Sort rendered to such Ships or Vessels, or for the safe lading and preserving any Goods or Merchandises wrecked, stranded, or cast away within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, and such Owners and Proprietors are hereby required to pay to them such Fee or Reward for deciding on every such Claim and Demand as shall be adjudged to them, as that Behalf by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being.

So help me GOD!

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Parties or Persons so claiming as to be entitled to Salvage or Compensation for Services rendered as aforesaid, or the Party or Parties who are to pay the same, or their Agents, shall be dissatisfied with such Award and Decision of the Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for either of them respectively, within Twenty-four Hours after such Award is made, but not afterwards, to declare to the Commissioners his or their Desire of obtaining the Judgment of some competent Court of Admiralty respecting the said Salvage or Compensation as aforesaid; and thereupon the Parties or Persons so claiming to be entitled to Salvage, shall forthwith be required by the Commissioners to declare whether he or they will proceed in the Court of Admiralty of the Cinque Ports, or the High Court of Admiralty of England, and he or they shall so proceed within Twenty Days from the Date of such Award, by taking out a Motion against the adverse Party; but in such Case the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to present the said Ship and her Cargo, notwithstanding such Detachment and Proceeding, to depart on her Voyage, or to deliver to the Owners and Proprietors, or their Agents, any Goods or Merchandises, respecting which any Claim for Salvage shall be made upon the Owners or Proprietors of the same, or their Agents, giving good and sufficient Bail in Double the Amount of the Sum awarded, and which shall the said Commissioners or any of them are and is hereby authorized to take and certify according to the Form contained in the Schedule hereto annexed, and to transmit the same without Delay to the Court of Admiralty, in which the Intention of Proceeding shall be so declared, together with a true Certificate in Writing of the gross Value of the whole Ship and Cargo, or other Goods and Merchandises, respecting which Salvage shall be claimed; and also an official Copy of such Proceedings and Awards certified by the said Secretary or Register, and the same shall be admitted by such Court of Admiralty as Evidence in the Cause.

VI. XI. And whereas it frequently happens that Anchors, Cables, and other Marine Stores or Merchandise, which have been weighed, freighted, or taken possession of, within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, or are fraudulently or Purposely carried away to Madras, London, Plymouth, and other Ports, not within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, and the Officers of the Lord Warden cannot, by means of such Removal, recover the same; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Surgeons, Deputies, or any other Officer of the Lord Warden, whenever the Case shall happen, to seize such Anchor, Cable, or other Marine Stores or Merchandise, out of the Jurisdiction aforesaid, and there to take and carry away the same, to some One of the aforesaid public Places of Deposit.

II. “ The Duties on Admissions of Salesmen, &c. in Scotland, shall take place immediately from the passing of “ this Act.” § 45.

XLVI. And he it further enacted, That all the Monies to arise from the Duties granted by this Act, together with the Monies to arise from the Duties granted by the aforesaid Act of the Forty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, and remaining unexpended, and from the Duties on Licences to deal in Thread Lace, granted by an Act of the Forty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and now under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps, shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Duties, on Stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, who shall from Time to Time pay the same into the Bank of England for the Use of His Majesty, pursuant to the Act in that Behalf made and provided, and shall themselves pay the same, (after deducting the Charges of raising, collecting, and accounting for the same, and all other Charges first payable thereon) to the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, in one Sum, at such Times, and in such Manner, as the said Stamp Duties are by the Law in Force directed to be paid; and that the Money so paid into the said Receipt shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

XLVII. XLVIII. And whereas by the Act for the Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, it was declared that during the Continuance of the said Act, the Customs, Duties, Taxes, and Parliaments, by the said Act then in force in England, Scotland should not be changed throughout, and that Scotland should not be charged with any other Duties to be laid on by the Parliament of England before the Union; And whereas at the Time of passing the Act of Union, the Stamp Duties, in force in England, were those granted by an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, First Term of Years, and continued by subsequent Acts till the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and sixty, and granted by an Act of the Ninth Year of King William, and before the Union, the Duties granted by the Act of the Fifteenth Sixth Years of King William and Queen Mary, were continued for a further Term of Ninety-six Years, from the last Day of July One thousand seven hundred and ten, during which Period Scotland was entitled to an Exemption from the same; And whereas by an Act passed in the First Session of the Parliament of Great Britain, the said Duties, granted by the Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William and Queen Mary, were extended for One Year more after the Expiration of the said Ninety-six Years, and were made payable throughout the whole Kingdom of Great Britain, and the said Duties were afterwards made perpetual by an Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the First: So that those Duties would have been now payable in Scotland, if all the said Stamp Duties had not been repealed by the several Acts of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and other Duties granted to be charged; in which Act, Scotland is not charged equally with England, by reason of the Exemption then in force; And whereas Scotland is not being any longer entitled, under the Act of Union, to an Exemption from the Assent of the Stamp Duties, granted by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William and Queen Mary, and it being more convenient and desirable, that one uniform Rate of Stamp Duty should be payable in England and Scotland, upon all Deeds and Instruments assented to both, the Duties upon all such Deeds and Instruments are equated in the Schedule hereto annexed; and it being reasonable, that Scotland should have some other Exemption, by way of Equivalent for the Assent of the Duties granted by the said Act of the Ninth Year of King William, the Duties now payable in Scotland upon Charters of Redemption, Instruments of Sale, and other Instruments in use there, for the completing or renewing of Titles to Lands and other heritable Subjects, are, in the said Schedule hereto annexed, reduced from Fourteen Shillings to Seven Shillings Nine, in order to preserve and secure such Equivalent to Scotland; be it further enacted and declared, That the said Duties so reduced, in Scotland, shall not at any Time hereafter be added to or increased, in any greater Degree, than the Duties of Fifteen Shillings, charged in the said Schedule hereto annexed, on Surrenders and other Instruments of or relating to Copyhold Lands in England; and that if the said last-mentioned Duties shall at any Time hereafter be reduced, the said Duties on Charters of Redemption, Instruments of Sale, and other Instruments, for the completing or renewing of Titles to Lands and heritable Subjects in Scotland, shall also be reduced to the same Degree.

And all may be altered or repealed this Session. § 45.

An Exemption granted to Scotland for additional Duties on Deeds, &c. &c. those from which Scotland was exempt by the Act of Union.

 of Registers in Scotland in which Deeds and other Writings may be compulsorily recorded, either for Execution or for Preference: And whereas the Laws heretofore devised for regulating the Formation and Custody of the Publick Records, and more especially of those in the Local Registries throughout Scotland, have not been found sufficient; and it is of high Importance that the whole of the Publick Records within that Part of the United Kingdom should be placed under one general and effectual Plan of Management and Control: And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, passed on the Thirtieth Day of June in the Year One thousand six hundred and eighty-five, intitled, All concerning the Registration of Writs in the Books of Signet, &c. inter alia, enacted and ordered, "That no Clerk of either Court for the future presume to register any Writ in his Books, either for Confirmation, or where Execution is to pass against any Party that dwells without the Jurisdiction, under the Pain of Imprisonment, and of Five hundred Merks of Penalty, to the one Half to His Majesty, and the other Half to the Party Pursuing;" which Provisions of the aforesaid Act it has become necessary to renew, modify, and enlarge; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority

 Parliament of Scotland passed on the Thirtieth Day of August in the Year One thousand six hundred and eighty-eight, intitled, All concerning Registrars of Probate Writs, &c. in virtue of any Clause contained in such Deeds and Writings, conferring that the same should be recorded either for Preference thereof, or for Execution: Provided always, that this Act shall not extend to or affect the Right of the Clerks of Royal Burghs to receive Instruments of Pretail or Bills of Exchange, Inland Bills and Promissory Notes, and to record the same: Provided also, that this Act shall not extend to or affect the Right of the Clerks of Royal Burghs to record in their Book Instruments of Sale and other Writs relative to leaseable Property holding in Burghs and situated within their respective Burghs or Liberties thereof in virtue of an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, passed on the Sixth Day of September in the Year One thousand five hundred and eighty-one, intitled, All concerning the Registration of Signets and Resignations of Tenements within Burghs: Provided also, that this Act shall not extend to or affect the Right of the Clerks of Royal Burghs to receive and record Writings, Testes, Writings conferring that the same should be recorded either for Preference thereof, or for Execution; or in virtue of an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, passed on the 5th of February, in the 1st of King James VI. as amended by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, passed on the 5th of February, in the 11th of King James VI. as amended by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain intitled the Registration of Bills and Promissory Notes for the Improvement of Consistory Records.

III. And be it further enacted, That, if after the Date aforesaid, any of the Clerks of Royal Burghs, or

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of His present Majesty, for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax, and to make further Provision for concerning Small Livings and Charitable Institutions from the Land Tax. [3d Year 1809.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled, *An Act to amend an Act passed in the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty, for consolidating the several Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax, and to make further Provision for concerning Small Livings, and Charitable Institutions from the Land Tax, after reciting that the Provisions therein for the Publick from the Redemption of Land Tax by Bodies Politick and Corporate, and Companies and Partners and Trustees for Charitable and other Publick Purposes, by Sales under the Authority of the Commissioners appointed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the Purpose of regulating, directing, approving, and confirming such Sales, amounted to a very large Sum, and was likely to be considerably increased by further Sales and Concessions for Sale for the Redemption of Land Tax under the Authority of the said Commissioners, and that it might be expedient to augment the Income of Small Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices, and of Charitable Institutions, by mortgaging the same from the Land Tax charged on the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments belonging to such Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions in the Manner therein mentioned, it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Purpose aforesaid, at any Time within the Space of Two Years after the passing of the said Act, to discharge the Exemption and Discharge of the Land Tax charged upon the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments belonging to any Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions in Cases where the clear Annual Income of such Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions should not exceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, without the Transfer or Payment of any Consideration for the same, in the Manner and under the Directions and Restrictions in the said Act mentioned, provided that the Annual Amount of Land Tax to be extinguished by virtue of the said Act, under the Direction of the said Commissioners without the Transfer or Payment of any Consideration should not exceed the Sum of Six thousand Pounds: And whereas it appears from the Proceedings of the said Commissioners in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities vested in them by the said Act, of which Proceedings a Statement has been laid before Parliament, printed in the Prothero for that Purpose in the said Act contained, that they have discharged the Exemption and Discharge of the Land Tax charged upon Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments belonging to One thousand two hundred and sixty-three Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices, and to Two hundred and eighty Charitable Institutions in Cases where the clear Annual Amount of such Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices and Charitable Institutions do not ex ceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, without the Transfer or Payment of any Consideration in the Manner and under the Directions and Restrictions in the said Act mentioned, and that the Annual Amount of Land Tax which has been so extinguished is only Five thousand Six hundred and seventy Pounds Six Shillings and Three pence Three Farthings: And whereas the Taxes raised by the said Act, for transferring to the said Commissioners the Messuages which were included by the said Act, in order to enable the same to be sold: Exemption to the Benefit thereof is expired: And whereas the Provisions relating to the Publick from the Redemption of Land Tax by Bodies Politick and Corporate and Companies and Partners and Trustees for Charitable and other Publick Purposes, have been considerably increased by further Sales and Concessions for Sale for the Redemption of Land Tax under the Authority of the said Commissioners since the Time of passing the said recited Act, and much Benefit to the Publick may be expected if such Redemption of Land Tax by Bodies Politick and Corporate, and Companies and Partners, and Trustees for Charitable and other Publick Purposes, shall continue to be made under the Provisions and Authorities in that Effect: In the said Act of the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty's most Excellent Majesty King George the Third, it is expedient further to extend the Benefits of the said recited Act of the Forty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's most Excellent Majesty King George the Third, to such other Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions in Cases where the clear Annual Income thereof does not exceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds as have not yet had the Benefit of the said recited Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners at any Time within the Space of Eighteen Calendar Months after the passing of this Act to discharge the Exemption and Discharge of the Land Tax charged upon such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments in the Manner and under the Directions and Restrictions, as in the said recited Act of the Forty-sixth Year of His present Majesty are mentioned, provided that the Annual Amount of Land Tax to be extinguished by virtue of this Act, shall not, together with the before mentioned Annual Sum of Five thousand Six hundred and seventy Pounds Six Shillings and Three pence Three Farthings, exceed the Total Yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds: Provided also, that Messuages, such as were included by the said Act of the Forty-sixth Year of His present Majesty to be transferred to the said Commissioners, and which shall C A P. LXVIII.

An Act to explain and amend the Law of Bastardy, in far as relates to indentifying Parishes in respect thereof. [31st Jan 1809.]

WHEREAS the Provisions of an Act made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, concerning Bastards begotten and born out of lawful Matrimony, are found to be ambiguous in the Purposes of indentifying Parishes against the Charges and Expenses incurred by the apprehending and securing the reputed Father, and also by the obtaining the Order of Filiation: And whereas it is expedient that such Charges and Expenses should be borne and discharged by the adjudged reputed Father of such Bastard Child or Children, at the Discretion of the Justices by whom such Acquiescence shall be made, either in the Court of Quarter Sessions or otherwise, not exceeding the Amount herein-after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person who shall hereafter be adjudged to be the reputed Father of any Bastard Child or Children, shall be chargeable with and liable to the Payment of all reasonable Charges and Expenses incurred to the Birth of such Bastard Child or Children, and also to the Payment of the Costs of the Order of Filiation, such Costs of apprehending and securing the reputed Father, and of the Order of Filiation, not to exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds: and all such Charges, Expenses, and Costs, shall be duly and respectively ascertained on Oath before the Justices of the Peace or the Court of Quarter Sessions making such Order of Filiation, which Oath such Justices or Court are hereby respectively empowered to administer.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Single Woman shall declare herself to be with Child, and that such Child is likely to be born a Bastard and to be chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Extra-parochial Place, and shall be an Excommunicate to be taken on Writing upon Oath before any Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Town Corporate where such Parish, Township, or Place shall be, charge any Person with having gotten her with Child, it shall be lawful to and for such Justice, upon Application made to him by the Overseer of the Poor of such Parish or Township, or by any substantial Member of such Extra-parochial Place, to issue out his Warrant for the immediate apprehending of such Person to be charged as aforesaid, and for bringing him before such Justice, or before any other Justice of the Peace of such County, Riding, Division, Liberty, or Town Corporate; and the Justice before whom such Person shall be brought, having Authority to this Behalf, is hereby authorized and required to commit the Person so charged as aforesaid to the Common Gaoler or High of Correction of such County, Riding, Division, Liberty or Town Corporate, unless he shall give Security to indemnify such Parish or Place, or shall enter into Recognizance with sufficient Surety or Sureties upon Conditions to appear at the next General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, or Town Corporate, to abide and perform such Order or Orders as shall then be made in pursuance of the last Act of the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, unless One such Justice as aforesaid, shall have certified in Writing under his Hand to such General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace, that it had been proved before him upon the Oath of One credible Witness that such Single Woman had not been thro' Child, or had been delivered within One Month only previous to the Day on which such General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace shall be holden, or unless Two Justices of the Peace of such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, or Town Corporate, shall have certified in Writing under their Hands to the next, or where such Woman shall not have been delivered as aforesaid, then to the immediately following General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace, that an Order of Filiation had been already made on the Person so charged, or that such Order was not then requisite to be made, or account of the Death of the Child born a Bastard, or for other like sufficient Reason; in each of which Cases truly before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Justices assembled at such General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace, to require such Recognizance to be taken at the next General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, Riding, Division, City, or Town Corporate, without requiring the Personal Attendance of the Putative Father: to bind, or of that of his Order or Sureties, and so entire of the said Two last mentioned Cases it shall be lawful for the Justices assembled as aforesaid wholly to discharge such Recognizance.

III. And whereas Parishes are often put to great Expence in enforcing the Performance of Orders of Matrimony made on the Filiation of Bastard Children: Be it therefore further enacted, That if any reputed Father or any Mother of such Bastard Child or Children on whom any Order of Filiation or Matrimony of such Child or Children shall have been made by the Court of Quarter Sessions, or which shall have been made by Two Justices
